

Newslead: Please Post

Contact: Marsha Stratton, Idea Stream, 231.933.6635

Dingeman, Dancer & Christopherson Law Firm Marks 20th Anniversary

Traverse City, MI, December 10, 2010 – Dingeman, Dancer & Christopherson PLC is celebrating its 20th anniversary this year. The full-service Traverse City law firm was founded by Dan Dingeman and Mark Dancer in 1990, and their new office building was the largest one put up in the downtown business district that year. Over the years, DDC has served a diverse portfolio of clients in the business, government, and nonprofit sectors, as well as individuals – not just locally, but around the country – including Fortune 500 corporations.

“It is always our goal to deliver client-centered solutions, using traditional legal knowledge and processes in combination with leading-edge technologies,” says Dingeman. In addition to their experience and expertise, the firm’s eight attorneys also boast a noteworthy record of community service.

DDC has been awarded the AV rating by an independent law directory, signifying that the firm’s legal abilities are of the very highest standard and the professional ethics and conduct of the firm's attorneys are above question.

For more information, contact Dingeman, Dancer & Christopherson, 100 Park Street, Traverse City, MI, tel. 231.929.0500, or visit www.ddc-law.com.